TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Vote Early and Often for Your Favorite.

Governing the Contest for the Complimentary Trip to the World's Fair.

The REPUBLICAN having decided, as already announced, to send at its own expense, a saleslady, type writer or stenographer employed in Arizona, makes the following rules governing the contest.

Travel and sleeping car fare will be allowed as well as rooms and board at the best hotels, and all expenses of the saleslady, type writer or stenographer, including incidentals and admission to the fair, will be paid by THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN. All arrangements will be under the direction of the REPUBLICAN management, and the saleslady of the trip will be carefully attended to. The trip will occupy not more than a month, and may be made at any time during the fair.

The selection of the person is left to readers of THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN who can vote by preference by ballot. No employee in any way connected with THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN will be allowed to take part in the contest.

The accompanying ballot must be cut and voted before its expiration.
The contest will close at 6 p. m. of Dec.
1892, and the announcement of the winner will be made on Sunday, Jan. 1, 1893.

Rules of the Contest.

Any one is entitled to vote as often as they can obtain a copy of THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN containing the official ballot.

On the ballot out, write in the name of the person by whom he or she is employed and send to L. J. Wood, the fair commissioner, Phoenix, or leave in a sealed envelope at the office at the rear of the Hartford Hotel, on the end of the central "Republican Voting Contest."

Vote for the same person as often as possible.

Only one person can be voted for on each ballot. If a ballot contains the name of more than one person it will be counted.

Every copy of THE DAILY REPUBLICAN until Dec. 31, will contain the ballot. See that every ballot is voted for.

This contest is not confined to Phoenix, but is open to every town or city in Arizona.

The person receiving the largest number of votes will be given the complimentary trip to the World's Fair.

Ballots must be sent within 15 days after they appear in THE DAILY REPUBLICAN. Ballots will not be accepted after that time, except when they are from out-of-town persons, when they will be accepted.

Ballots must be actually cut out of THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN and can be obtained in no other way.

This ballot out, and vote for your favorite. Some person will be afforded vacation, free of expense, to see his friend.

forty-eight, forty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-free. Hit am singular that you has sick old childrens. I can't bless you has gran childrens. You don't look more den forty years old, yesself.

"Nonsense, old man; I see you want to flatter me. When a person gets to be fifty-three years old!"

"Fifty-free? I jess dun gwinter bless hit, fifty-free, fifty-foah, fifty-five, fifty-six—I want you to ten-shun when I counts de eggs, so dar'll be no mistake—fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-free, sixty-foah. Whew!
Dat am a warm day. Dis am de time ole yeh when I feels Iee gettin ole mys-self. I ain't long for dis world. You comes from an ole family. When yee fodder died he was seventy years ole."

"Seventy-two."

"Dat's old snub. Seventy-two, seventy-free, seventy-foah, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven, seventy-eight, seventy-nine—and your mudder? She was one ob de noblest looking ladies I ebber see. You reminds me ob her so much. She libbed to mos' a hundred.
I blesses she was done pass a centurion when she died."

"No, Uncle Mose, she was only ninety-six when she died."

"Den she warn't no chicken when she died. I know dat—ninety-six, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred, one, two, free, foah, five, six, seven, eight—dar 108 nice fresh eggs—jess nine dozen, and here am one moah egg in case I has discounted myself."

Old Mose went on his way rejoicing.
A few days afterward Mrs. Burton said to her husband:

"I am afraid we will have to discharge Matilda. I am satisfied she steals the milk and eggs. I am positive about the eggs, for I bought them day before yesterday, and now about half of them are gone. I stood right there and heard Old Mose count them myself, and there were nine dozen."—A. E. Sweet in Texas Sittings.

His Weak Point.

Brown—What a remarkably well read man Robinson is. You cannot name a book that he hasn't read. I can't understand how a man can find time to read so much.

Fogg—I think I can.

Brown—And how, pray?

Fogg—You ask him a few questions about some book you have read yourself, and you'll find out immediately.—

The Law of Adaptation.

"You know that the Marquis de Calmaux owns a magnificent landscape by Claude Lorraine and two charming little picture frames of the same period?"

"Yes; what of that?"

"As the picture was too large to fit either of the frames he had it cut in two, and wrote at the bottom of the first half, "Continuation opposite."—Masque de Fer.
